With more than 13 years of experience in criminal law, Nicole DeBorde is dedicated to the highest quality of criminal defense. As a former District Attorney, DeBorde's knowledge of the inner workings of law enforcement has translated into an ability to understand and anticipate her government adversaries. This familiarity has been a very useful tool in defending her clients against all types of accusations.

DeBorde has gained the respect of judges, peers and clients with her consistent and aggressive approach to defending her clients in both state and federal court.

A board member of the Houston Bar Association's Criminal Law and Procedure Section and the Harris County Criminal Lawyer's Association, DeBorde is routinely sought out as a legal analyst for respected television news programs, such as CNN, FOX and MSNBC.

Rated AV by Martindale-Hubbell, and listed in Martindale's Directory of Preeminent Lawyers, the DeBorde Law Office displays an incomparable passion for the law and commitment to her clients.
